WORK IN THE SHOPS

Plenty of Work on Hand to Keep the Men

A TIMES reporter took a stroli yesterday through the Roanoke Machine Works, and on every side saw signs of bustling activity.

All the departments are running with a full force of hands, and General Fore-man Hanthern says that there is plenty of work on hand to keep the men busy for months to come. Recovering from His Injuries. Morton W. Turner, son of C. M. Turner, commissioner of the revenue for the city, was able to leave his bed yesterday morning, but still suffers con-siderably from the bruises he received when thrown from a runaway horse last Saturday.

STREET RAILWAY.

The New Company to Establish a Splendid System.

There was much talk on the streets yesterday about the recent deal by which the Roanoke Street Railway changed owners. It was generally conceded that the change of ownership was a fortunate thing for Roanoke.

The purchasers are amply ably to pay off every dollar of indebtedness on the lines and inaugurate and carry out improvements which will make it the equal of any street railway line in the country in equipment and service, as well as a most valuable advertisement for Roanoke.

A Times representative but improvement in the country in equipment and service, as well as a most valuable advertisement for Roanoke.

for Roanoke.

A Times representative had a talk yesterday with S. W. Jamison, the president of the new company, and learned something of the plans which had been formed and would be put in operation as speedily as possible.

"The first thing we propose to do," said Mr. Jamison, "is to take care of every labor claim against the old company. Messrs. James R. Terry and Junius B. Fishburne, the auditing committee, are now busy with the books, and as soon as they can prepare a report the labor claims will be liquidated."

The present unsightly "horse care"

The present unsightly "horse cars" and the mules that draw them will be relegated to the rear, and an electric line will be put down under the supervision of a competent electrical engineer.

About six miles of new frack will be laid and the old remodeled and repaired. A line will be laid to connect the Roanoke Development Company's property with this city, Vinton and Salem. The line to the Crystal Springs Land Company's property and the city water works will be completed and operated as a part of the system, and electric cars will also be run on the Viaton extension.

Viator extension.

The engine now in use on the Salem extension will give place to a new and larger one with increased capacity, and the cars will be remodeled and beautified and the service increased.

The improvements contemplated will necessitate the expenditure of about $150,000, said Mr. Jamison, but it was the intention of his company to have a first-class street railway system for Roanoke, regardless of the cost.

FRUITFUL SOURCE OF DISEASE.

FRUITFUL SOURCE OF DISEASE.

Stagnant Water Standing Near the Machine Works

The dam placed across Trout run, in the vicinity of the Crozer Furnaces several months ago, in order to deepen the channel bids fair, in the estimation of Sanitary Inspector Bower, to prove a fruitful source of desease and sickness.

Back water found its way through a culvert under the Norfolk and Western railroad tracks to the low grounds between the Roanoke Machine Works, Rolling Mill, American Bridge Works and the furnaces and deposited a great am, unt of flith, which, when the warm sunshine of spring distils vapors from it and scatters them through the city, will carry sickness into many households.

Mr. Bower said just how the danger could be removed he did not know, but the attention of the board of public works could be called to it.

A representative of The Times called upon the board and was informed that not only this particular spot would be looked after, but a system of thorough cleansing and renovation for the whole city would be inaugurated. lvert under the Norfolk and Western

First Baptist Church.

An entertainment, free of charge, in the form of a sociable, will be held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist Church in the old church on Friday night of this week. The Elpaal Society will give an unique entertainment on the 18th instant. These entertainments are not intended to draw upon the purse as much as to evolve the social element of the church and congregation.

How to Save Talking.

The bright sunshine yesterday brought candidates for the city offices out in force. The average voter submitted to the usual button-holing process go d. naturedly. If every candidate would put his announoment in The Times it would save a great deal of talking.

APIARY NOTES

SIR JOHN LUBBOCK shows that a bee's wings vibrate at the rate of 400 heats to the second.

A SINGLE bee, with all its industry, energy and the innumerable journeys it has to perform, will not collect more than a teaspoonful of honey in a single season, yet the total weight of honey taken from a single hive is often from 60 to 100 pounds.

TITMICE, especially great-tits, are held in great horror by many bee-keepers, who declare that they are their greatest enemies and accuse them of tapping at the entrances to the hives and snapping up the bees as they come out to discover what is amiss.

A HIVE of 5,000 bees will produce about 50 pounds of honey annually, and will multiply about tenfold in five years. According to the latest statistics the total number of hives of bees in the United States and Europe is 7,424,000, and the annual product of honey 183,000,000 pounds.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.
